The State Department advised on July 31, 1946, that the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D. C. had advised the Department of the appointment of Anatoly Antonovich Iakovlev as Vice Consul of the USSR in New York. The State Department further informed that Iakovlev was being so recognized.

A review of the files of the Bureau failed to reflect any information regarding Iakovlev. It is believed, however, that he is identical with Anatoly Antonovich Iakovlev who is a clerk in the Soviet Consulate at New York. It is suggested that you endeavor to discreetly ascertain if Iakovlev, above mentioned, is now the Vice Consul of the USSR in New York.

Re: SODAC, NEW YORK CITY;
INTERNAL SECURITY - R

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter dated August 7, 1946 in which you advised that the State Department had informed you that ANATOLY ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV had been appointed to the position of Vice-Consul at the New York Consulate. As you pointed out this undoubtedly refers to ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV. You requested to be advised if this office had any information indicating that YAKOVLEV had been elevated to the position of Vice-Consul.

This office has learned through [redacted] (C) whose identity is known to the Bureau, that following his return to the United States by plane from Moscow on July 26, 1946, YAKOVLEV reportedly was to be given a higher position in the New York Consulate. It is also noted that upon his re-entry, he informed the United States Immigration Authorities that he was the Assistant Consul General at the U.S.S.R. Consulate in New York City.

Very truly yours,

E. E. Conroy

DETAILS:

This investigation is predicated upon reference letter which authorized an investigation of ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, formerly a clerk at the U.S.S.R. Consulate, 7 East 61st Street, New York City, who has recently been made a Vice-Consul. The name of this subject is being carried as above inasmuch as this spelling was used by the subject with the filing of his PFI form with the State Department. However, it is to be noted that the State Department notification at the time of subject's promotion from clerk to Vice-Consul, carried the subject's name as ANATOLY ANTONOVICH IAKOVLEV.

A check of the New York Indices reflects that a BERNARD TENZER is the husband of MARION TENZER, who is the subject of a Security Matter - C investigation in this office. MARION TENZER was believed to be a member of the White Collar Union of the Communist Party in Washington, D.C., and previous to that, had been a member of the MID-TOWN CLUB of the C.P.A. in Manhattan, New York.

Investigation has revealed that she is now living with her husband at 240 East 24th Street, and that her husband, BERNARD TENZER, attends law school and is believed to be employed as a law clerk in the firm of TENZER, GREENBLATT, FALLON & KAPLAN, 1501 Broadway, New York City.

The files of this office further reflect that by letter dated November 5, 1945, the Washington Field Division advised in the matter entitled "SODAC, NEW YORK CITY, that [REDACTED]

Spot surveillances of the subject have been conducted in order to determine his activities. So far, they have failed to reveal any unusual activities other than [REDACTED] (S) b1

Inquiries have been made in an attempt to develop a highly confidential Informant at YAKOVLEV's home address, 3 West 108th St., New York City. This is a foreign populated section of the city and the superintendent does not appear to be trustworthy. Surveillance has revealed that ANASTACIA YAKOLEVA, wife of subject, no longer is employed at AMTORG as she has been observed with their son, who is approximately three years old, during the day in the vicinity of their apartment building. Investigation has revealed that YAKOVLEVS spend most of their leisure time at home. [REDACTED]

A mail cover on the residence of YAKOVLEV, maintained from February 7, 1946 until March 7, 1946, was unproductive. In view of the foregoing information, no further attempt is being made to [REDACTED] at this time. (S) (u)

REPORT MADE AT Washington, D.C.	DATE WHEN MADE 12/10/46	PERIOD FOR WHICH MADE 11/7/46	REPORT MADE BY JAMES J. CANAVAN JJC:MB
TITLE ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, wa			CHARACTER OF CASE INTERNAL SECURITY - R

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

YAKOVLEV accompanied by ZOT IVANAVICH TCHETOURNYKH arrived Washington, D.C., November 7, 1946 at 4:54 PM on American Airlines flight number 405 from New York City. They then proceeded to the Russian Embassy where a reception in honor of MOLOTOV was in progress. YAKOVLEV and his companion were not observed to leave Washington, D.C. on the night of November 7, 1946.

REFERENCE: Report of Special Agent Robert J. Wirth dated November 21, 1946 at New York City. (u)

DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D.C. (u)

Classified by 2355
Exempt from GDS, Category 2
Date of Declassification Indefinite

The following investigation is predicated upon a telephone call received on November 7, 1946 from Special Agent Robert Granville of the New York Office who advised that the above named subject accompanied by TCHETOURNYKH was proceeding to Washington, D.C. via American Airlines flight number 405 from New York City and due to arrive in Washington, D.C. at 4:50 PM. Agent Granville stated that a daily spot surveillance is being conducted by the New York Office on YAKOVLEV inasmuch as he holds a similar job in the Consulate in New York as KERMALAEV holds at the Russian Embassy in Washington. Agent Granville also stated that YAKOVLEV was observed coming to Washington to attend a function in the Embassy and that he might possibly return to New York City on the 9:00 PM

Agent Granville advised that in the event YAKOVLEV attended the Embassy function [redacted] (S)u

[redacted] but desired to know if possible when he returned to New York. (S)u

The following description of YAKOVLEV was furnished by Agent Granville: b1

Age:	35 years
Height:	5 feet 10 inches
Weight:	165 pounds
Hair:	Dark brown
Appearance:	Boyish looking, wears glasses sometimes, but has not been wearing them recently
Dress:	Fawn colored hat, brown shoes, brown suit, white shirt, maroon and tan combination necktie, form fitting covert top coat. (S)u

His companion TCHETOURNYKH was also described as follows:

Age:	About 35 years
Height:	5 feet 11 inches
Hair:	Light
Appearance:	Slavonic
Dress:	Dark brown hat, dark suit possibly blue, tan shoes and tan gabardine top coat (S)u

A surveillance was instituted at the National Airport in Arlington, Virginia by Special Agents J. J. Canavan, A. S. Brent and C. D. Chapman at 4:30 PM. At 4:54 PM, two individuals answering the descriptions furnished by Agent Granville were observed to get off the American Airlines flight number 405 arriving at Washington, D.C. from New York City at 4:54 PM. They entered a Virginia taxicab at the airport and proceeded across the 14th Street Bridge to the Russian Embassy on 16th Street between L and M Streets, N.W. where a reception for MOLOTOV was in progress. (S)u

At this point Agent Chapman dropped the surveillance [redacted] (S)u

A check was made with Mr. GOSLEY, Passenger Agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad and he advised that the Russian Embassy had reserved an entire parlor car on Pennsylvania Railroad train number 150 leaving Washington, D.C. for New York City at 9:00 PM on November 7, 1946. He stated that it was believed that MOLOTOV was to go to New York on this train and that he had received instructions that no publicity was to be given to it. (X) u

There was also another block of seats reserved on the 9:00 PM train to New York but said reservations were made in New York City and also Mr. GOSLEY checked with the New York office but they were unable to definitely determine in whose name the reservations were made. (X) u

At 8:15 PM the writer and Special Agent Brent instituted a surveillance at Track 17 at Union Station from which track the 9:00 PM train for New York City was to leave. At 8:50 PM MOLOTOV and his party were observed to enter Union Station at the far entrance accompanied by a police escort and entered the 9:00 PM train however YAKOVLEV and his companion were not observed to be with MOLOTOV'S party. A check was maintained at all times at the entrances to track 17 up until the departure of the train and the subjects were not observed to board it. (X) u

At 9:15 PM a spot check was made at the Russian Embassy until 9:30 PM and the subject was not observed to leave there although there was evidence that some of the guests in attendance at the reception were still there. (X) u

At 9:40 PM a surveillance was instituted by the writer and Special Agent Brent at track #18 at Union Station from where the 10:00 PM train for New York City was to leave. A check of the passengers already on the train was made by Agent Brent while the entrance was kept under observation by the writer. A surveillance was maintained until the train left the station and subject was not observed to board the train. (X) u

At 10:05 PM the surveillance was discontinued. (X) u

TAILS:

At New York City

Mr. R. E. MARTIN of the U. S. S. Lines, advised that subject, ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, former vice consul at the U.S.S.R. Consulate, New York City; his wife and children, were to leave the United States on December 26, 1946 aboard the S.S.AMERICA, bound for Cherbourg, France. On December 27, 1946 physical surveillance revealed subject and family were taken to Pier 61 where the S.S.AMERICA was docked, by a U.S.S.R. Consulate car. Consul General JACOB MIRONOVICH LOMAKIN, Vice Consul PAVEL IVANOVICH FEDOSIMOV; ZOT IVANOVICH TCHEPOURNYKH, employee; Leonid Nikolaevich Fedotov, Secretary; and SERGEI SHECHALKALIN, employee, all of the U.S.S.R. Consulate, New York City, were among those who accompanied YAKOVLEV to the ship. The entire group mentioned above waited an hour on the dock for the ship to depart and to bid final farewell to subject and family. q u

Periodic spot surveillance of subject revealed that his hours prior to his departure were very irregular, but that he spent the majority of his time at the U.S.S.R. Consulate, 7 East 61 Street, New York City. He had lunch on several occasions with IAN ADOMIAN, believed to be an informant of the Soviet Consulate [who is the subject of a separate Internal Security - R investigation in this Office] and was seen frequently in the company of Consul General LOMAKIN. q u

On October 25, 1946 YAKOVLEV had lunch with LOMAKIN and TCHEPOURNYKH of the U.S.S.R. Consulate [who is also the subject of a separate Internal Security - R investigation in this Field Division]. Shortly before his departure YAKOVLEV was observed to be frequently with ZOT TCHEPOURNYKH, identified above, and, on November 7, 1946, YAKOVLEV, accompanied by TCHEPOURNYKH went to Washington, D. C., via American Air lines, to attend a reception given in honor of MOLOTOV. q u

The following information concerning the activities of YAKOVLEV was made available by Confidential Informant T1. Unless indicated to the contrary, only those contacts that are deemed to be pertinent to this investigation are being set forth. u

Reference is made to your memorandum dated January 6, 1949, your reference [redacted] in which you requested information concerning the above-named individual. b1

Anatoli Antonovich Yakovlev was born on May 31, 1911, at Berisoglsk, Russia. He entered the United States at San Pedro, California, on February 4, 1941, and was assigned to duties as a clerk at the Soviet Consulate in New York City, New York, on February 8, 1941. His wife Anastasia was born on January 4, 1913, at Ulanovsk, U.S.S.R., and in 1941 was employed by Amtorg Trading Corporation. In May of 1946, he traveled to Moscow, reportedly on a special mission for Gromyko. Upon his return to the United States on July 26, 1946, he then became a Vice Consul in the Soviet Consulate in New York City.

[redacted] Yakovlev, himself, b1 was described as [redacted] his wife and children departed from the United States on December 27, 1946, via the SS America for Cherbourg, France, where he was destined to the U.S.S.R. Embassy at Paris, France, which was reported as his next assignment.

Efforts are being made to obtain a photograph of Yakovlev and upon receipt of the same, a copy will be furnished to you.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, FBI

FROM : SAC, New York

SUBJECT: UNSUB, wa. "JOHN"
HARRY GOLD, Informant
ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: May 29, 1950

Enclosed herewith to the Philadelphia Office is one roll of sixteen millimeter film which was exposed on June 18 and June 19, 1943. The portions of the film between the strings tied onto the edge of the film contain pictures of a man and a woman walking on the street. These pictures have been viewed by Agents who conducted surveillances of A. A. YAKOVLEV, and it is their belief that the man in these pictures is YAKOVLEV. (X) u

However, it is noted that this film was exposed in 1943, whereas surveillances were not conducted of YAKOVLEV until the latter part of 1946. (X) u

The Agents who surveilled YAKOVLEV have also viewed the still pictures of YAKOVLEV taken with IAN ADOMIAN and which have been furnished to the Philadelphia Office by letter of May 27, 1950, and they have identified the still pictures of YAKOVLEV and feel that these stills are identical with the individual on the enclosed motion picture film. (X) u

It has also been noted by surveilling Agents that YAKOVLEV took shorter steps than the average man in walking, and carried his shoulders square, though hunched forward slightly.

It is requested that the motion picture film and the container be returned to the New York Office by the Philadelphia Office when they are no longer of use to that office. (X) u

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

GOLD advised of meeting individual known only as "JOHN" in early 1944, and maintained contact with him during 1944 and 1945. GOLD believes JOHN is a Russian. GOLD advised that he turned over to JOHN information that he obtained from Dr. FUCHS. JOHN also furnished GOLD with New York address of FUCHS, and with address of FUCHS' sister in Cambridge, Mass. JOHN also gave GOLD a note containing a name and telephone number which was left for FUCHS with his sister by GOLD. GOLD stated he met JOHN about twenty times, and only about on four occasions had they held a "lengthy conversation". GOLD also received instructions for FUCHS from JOHN, for future contacts of FUCHS in England following his departure from the United States. GOLD'S description of JOHN set forth. GOLD has stated photograph of ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, former Vice-Consul, USSR Consulate, NYC, is possibly identical with JOHN. GOLD recalled JOHN speaking of having a daughter named VICTORIA, and possibly another child, a son.

DETAILS:

At New York City, New York

HARRY GOLD, who has admitted obtaining information from Dr. KLAUS FUCHS and turning this information over to unidentified persons, has furnished the following information concerning the contacts he had with a man known only to him as JOHN:

GOLD advised that he met JOHN shortly after he first met Dr. FUCHS. GOLD had previously stated that he first met FUCHS in New York City in late February or early March, 1944, which would therefore place GOLD'S first meeting with JOHN shortly after February or March, 1944. GOLD further advised that prior to his first meeting with FUCHS, his former superior, "SAM", had given him all the arrangements for meeting FUCHS, and that following this first meeting with FUCHS, he kept a pre-arranged meeting on 54th Street in New York City in front of Childs Restaurant, opposite the bus terminal, with SAM. GOLD advised that here he met JOHN, and that before the two separated, they were joined by SAM and that this was the last he saw of SAM, and that his contacts then continued with JOHN.

GOLD placed the date of his second meeting with JOHN as being "probably late July, 1944". GOLD stated that he believes he met FUCHS in Queens, Long Island, not too far out; that is, not as far out in Queens as Jackson Heights. GOLD advised that about one-half hour after his meeting with FUCHS, he met JOHN further out in Queens and turned over to him the package he had received from FUCHS.

The next meeting with JOHN, GOLD stated, occurred about two or three weeks after his scheduled sixth meeting with FUCHS, which would place it in about August, 1944. GOLD advised that this meeting occurred in the neighborhood of Washington Square, and at this meeting JOHN furnished to GOLD, FUCHS' address at 77th Street in New York City.

The next meeting between GOLD and JOHN occurred on the same date that GOLD, carrying out the desires of JOHN, made an inquiry at FUCHS' West 77th Street address with negative results. This meeting would have occurred sometime later than August, 1944, but GOLD is unable to recall the lapse of time between this and the prior meeting. GOLD advised that this meeting occurred at a pre-arranged place somewhere "above Columbia University", and at this meeting GOLD informed JOHN of his unsuccessful attempt to contact FUCHS at the 77th Street address. GOLD was then instructed by JOHN to "sit tight". At this time another meeting with JOHN was arranged.

~~KRISTEL FUCHS HEINEMAN~~

At the next meeting GOLD was furnished by JOHN with the address in Cambridge, Massachusetts of Mrs. KRISTEL HEINEMAN, the sister of Dr. FUCHS. GOLD advised that he felt very uneasy over this assignment of attempting to locate FUCHS at his sister's house since the HEINEMAN family were total strangers to him. GOLD has stated that JOHN had instructed him to "get out fast" of the HEINEMAN house when ROBERT HEINEMAN was there. He was also told by JOHN to act natural with Mrs. HEINEMAN.

~~ROBERT~~

Subsequent to this meeting, GOLD made a trip to Cambridge to see Mrs. HEINEMAN, but she was not at home. The negative results of GOLD attempting to contact Mrs. HEINEMAN were related to JOHN a few days or a week after GOLD made this trip.

In late October or early November, 1944, GOLD again went to Cambridge, Massachusetts and presented himself to Mrs. HEINEMAN as a friend of FUCHS, and inquired where FUCHS could be located. Mrs. HEINEMAN informed GOLD that FUCHS had been transferred to the southwest, but was expected to visit her home at Christmas. GOLD stated that he was at the HEINEMAN'S very briefly on this visit, and that he left a note for FUCHS with Mrs. HEINEMAN. This note contained a name and telephone number in New York City, and had been furnished to him by JOHN, to be left for FUCHS with FUCHS' sister. To the best of his recollection, GOLD stated that the note had the name of J. or JEROME KAPLUN.

GOLD also advised that the first meeting he had with JOHN after leaving the note with Mrs. HEINEMAN occurred after JOHN got in touch with him and stated that he, JOHN, had heard from FUCHS.

The next meeting between JOHN and GOLD occurred in a bar on Third Avenue in the 40's in New York City. That meeting occurred sometime between the period of January, 1945 and June, 1945, probably a few days before GOLD went to Santa Fe, New Mexico, to see FUCHS in June, 1945. The purpose of this meeting between GOLD and JOHN was to make certain that GOLD would go to Santa Fe, and also to make arrangements to meet JOHN after his, GOLD'S, return from his meeting with FUCHS in Santa Fe.

GOLD stated that he next met JOHN following his return from Santa Fe in June, 1945, but prior to September, 1945 when GOLD made a second trip to Santa Fe. GOLD is not certain of the place he met JOHN, but says it might have been in Brooklyn on Metropolitan Avenue; also, it might have been on a street corner or in a bar as GOLD has also stated that he remembers that JOHN took the material which he, GOLD, had obtained from FUCHS in Santa Fe.

GOLD further advised that he next saw JOHN shortly after his, GOLD'S, second Santa Fe trip to see FUCHS which occurred in September, 1945. This meeting with JOHN occurred in Queens beyond Jackson Heights, and at this meeting GOLD turned over information to JOHN which he had obtained from FUCHS in Santa Fe.

GOLD states the next meeting with JOHN occurred "sometime before the first of January, 1946" near the St. George Hotel in Brooklyn. GOLD stated that JOHN was very apprehensive at this meeting, telling GOLD they would have to be "very careful in their meet."

The next meeting between GOLD and JOHN was scheduled to occur at Jamaica, Long Island. The details of this scheduled meeting and the time which it was supposed to occur have not been furnished.

The next meeting between GOLD and JOHN was scheduled to occur at the Earl Theater, Bronx. The time of this meeting has not been specified by GOLD, but both this meeting and the prior meeting were scheduled to occur subsequent to December 1945 and early 1946, but JOHN did not keep either of these appointments.

GOLD has advised that he met with JOHN approximately twenty times, but that only on about four of these occasions had he and JOHN had, what he termed, "a lengthy conversation," and that even these were not in excess of one hour. GOLD also stated that prior to his making a trip to Santa Fe in September 1945 to see FUCHS, he and JOHN had decided that GOLD would discuss arrangements with FUCHS for future contacts with FUCHS in England.

GOLD has also advised that he had spoken with FUCHS in Santa Fe, New Mexico, in September 1945 relative to arrangements for further meetings in England with someone else. He stated that he does not recall where the meeting was to take place, but he does recall that either FUCHS or the person whom FUCHS was to contact in England was to carry about five books tied with a cord under one arm, and one book in the other hand. GOLD stated that the arrangement for the location of the meeting was of FUCHS' selection as GOLD knew nothing about England, was merely to relate these arrangements for a future meeting with FUCHS to JOHN.

GOLD has also advised that as of 1944 JOHN spoke of having a daughter named VICTORIA whom he called VICKI. GOLD also stated that she had been named VICTORIA after a great Soviet victory, and it is his belief that she was born either at the time the Germans were repulsed outside Moscow, or at the time of the battle of Stalingrad. GOLD advised that it was also his impression that JOHN may have had one other child, possibly a boy older than VICTORIA. GOLD stated that it was his impression that this child was about two years of age at the time of this conversation in New York City which took place in late 1944 or early 1945. GOLD also believes that JOHN had VICTORIA in this country with him.

GOLD also stated that he seemed to recall that JOHN had an older brother who lived in Russia who was captured by the German Army in the first stages of the attack against Russia by Germany.

The following description of JOHN was furnished by GOLD:

Age:	35 in 1944 and 1945
Height:	5'10"
Weight:	180 - 185 pounds
Build:	Medium
Hair:	Dark, straight, well cut and combed in such a way that the better part of it was straight back.
Eyes:	Dark
Teeth:	Very regular and white
Dress:	Dressed like an American and wore a hat which gave the general appearance of being a Homburg, but which might have been a snap brim hat with the brim turned up
General Physical Appearance:	Appeared to be of Georgian extraction and GOLD mentioned a similarity to the famous Russian family of Mdivani
Peculiarities:	Had a definite European walk described by GOLD as mincing, but not effeminate; had broad shoulders
Marital Status:	Believed to be married
Children:	Daughter, VICTORIA, and possibly a son
Speech:	Russian accent.

From the photographs displayed to HARRY GOLD he has selected the photograph of ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, and has stated that he is almost positive that YAKOVLEV is identical with JOHN, but that he would not want to make an unqualified identification.

ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV

According to information set forth in his PR I form dated March 20, 1941, ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV was born on May 31, 1911 at Borisoglebsk, Russia, and from 1936 to 1941 he was a student at the Engineering and Economic Institute, Moscow, Russia. YAKOVLEV entered the United States at San Pedro, California on February 4, 1941 as a passenger aboard the SS ECUADOR, and furnished his destination as the Soviet Consulate, New York City, where he assumed his duties as a clerk on February 8, 1941.

His wife was listed as ANASTACIA IVANOVA YAKOVLEVA. At the time of her entry into the United States, which was on the same date as that of her husband, she furnished her occupation as that of housewife, and stated that they had no children. She also indicated that from 1936 to 1941 she was a student at the Engineering and Economic Institute, Moscow, Russia.

The following is a physical description of YAKOVLEV which was obtained from observation and from his PR I form:

Name:	ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV
Alias:	ANATOLY ANTONOVICH YAKOLEV; ANATOLE YAKOVLEFF
Birthdate:	May 31, 1911
Birthplace:	Borisoglebsk, Russia
Height:	5' 10"
Weight:	160 lbs.
Build:	Medium
Hair:	Dark brown; tendency to fall over his forehead
Peculiarities:	Boyish features
Occupation:	Clerk, and later Vice-Consul, Soviet Consulate, New York City
Marital Status:	Married
Wife:	ANASTACIA
Address:	1335 Madison Avenue, New York City; 6 East 87th Street, New York City; 3 West 108th Street, New York City.
Children:	VICTORIA and PAVEL, twins; born on June 25, 1941, Brooklyn, New York.

Agents who have observed YAKOVLEV during the period of time of his residence in the United States stated that he has a peculiar walk and that

Confidential Informant T-2, of known reliability, advised that NKVD agents were not known officially at the Consulate or the Embassy; however, they soon became known unofficially because of their duties and activities, and that they would then be shown a great deal of respect, more than their position warrants. T-2 further advised that socially these agents go out together and on many occasions will accompany the Consul General to social affairs. (S) (u)

Confidential Informant T-2 also advised that they keep irregular hours, and are the only Consulate employees having a privately owned automobile. T-2 also stated that the "resident" in charge of NKVD matters is usually the Vice-Consul. (S) (u)

It is noted that in 1946 YAKOVLEV was promoted to the position of Vice-Consul, and that his hours were established as being irregular, and that he had been known to accompany the Consul General on several occasions. For some time he was the only employee at the New York Soviet Consulate having a privately owned automobile. (S) (u)

Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, advised that on February 14, 1946 YAKOVLEV arrived in Des Moines, Iowa, and attended the National Farm Institute held at the Hotel Ft. Des Moines on February 15 and 16, 1946; that he departed at 11:30 P. M. on February 16, 1946. YAKOVLEV was met at the plane in Des Moines by CHARLES RANSON, an editorial writer for the Des Moines "Register and Tribune", and by JAMES WALLACE, son of HENRY A. WALLACE.

Confidential Informant T-4, of known reliability, advised that YAKOVLEV was observed arriving in Washington, D. C. on 4:54 P. M. via American Airlines Flight #405 on November 7, 1946. Confidential Informant T-4 further advised that YAKOVLEV then attended a reception for Mr. MOLOTOV which was held at the Russian Embassy, Washington, D. C. ~~SECRET~~

Confidential Informant T-5, of known reliability, advised that on December 27, 1946 YAKOVLEV, his wife, and two children boarded the SS AMERICA bound for Cherbourg, France.

The records of the Board of Health for the City of New York reflected under Birth Record #21884, the following information:

Name:	VICTORIA YAKOVLEFF
Born:	June 25, 1941 at the Israel Zion Hospital, Brooklyn
Father's name:	ANATOLE
Born:	Russia
Age:	30
Occupation:	Clerk, Russian Consulate
Mother's name:	ANASTACIA DEMID YAKOVLEVA
Born:	Russia
Age:	28
Occupation:	Housewife
Residence:	6 East 87th Street, New York City

The Board of Health records also contained the following Birth Record under #21885:

Name:	PAVEL YAKOVLEFF
Sex:	Male
Born:	June 25, 1941, twin
Doctor:	J. KALEDOR (phonetic)

The same information as set out above in the birth record of VICTORIA YAKOVLEFF is also included on that of PAVEL YAKOVLEFF.

Confidential Informant T-9, of known reliability, advised that she did not know ANATOLE YAKOVLEV.

VLADIMIR SERGEEVICH PRAVDIN

Confidential Informant T-6, of known reliability, advised that VLADIMIR SERGEEVICH PRAVDIN arrived in the United States aboard the Soviet ship SS IBILISI, arriving at Seattle, Washington, October 19, 1941. At this time he furnished his destination as New York City, where he was to be editor and correspondent for the Tass News Agency.

The State Department records reflected that he was born on August 15, 1905 at Leningrad, Russia, and that his wife is OLGA PRAVDINA.

Confidential Informant T-6 also advised that in late 1943 PRAVDIN made a trip to Europe and returned to the United States by plane on January 15, 1944.

Confidential Informant T-7, of known reliability, advised that Mr. and Mrs. PRAVDIN departed from the United States on March 12, 1946 via the SS SERGEI KIROV, destined for Russia.

The following description of PRAVDIN was obtained from the Immigration and Naturalization Service records, Seattle, Washington:

Name:	VLADIMIR SERGEEVICH PRAVDIN
Race:	White
Birthdate:	August 15, 1905
Birthplace:	Leningrad, Russia
Height:	5'9"
Hair:	Dark
Eyes:	Brown
Complexion:	Dark
Children:	Two; one named VICTORIA
Characteristics:	Wears glasses.

Confidential Informant T-8, of known reliability, advised that during a period of time when she was active as an espionage agent for the Russians in late 1941 or early 1942, she was in contact with a Russian agent named "JOHN". JOHN in turn introduced Confidential Informant T-8 to MARGARET. T-8 advised that she maintained contact with MARGARET five or six times in early 1942, but could furnish no information about MARGARET, and that subsequently MARGARET introduced her to CATHERINE. Confidential Informant T-8 has identified OLGA PRAVDINA as being MARGARET.

LEE, NEW YORK, DATED JUNE TWO LAST, IN YAKOVLEV CASE. IN GENERAL, NEUNSON REITERATED INFO RE HIS CONTACTS WITH RUSSIAN CONSULATE, NYC, PREVIOUSLY FURNISHED BY HIM AS SET OUT ON PAGES FIFTEEN THROUGH TWENTYONE IN REP OF SA FRED C. BIRKBY, PHILA, DATED FEB. THIRTEEN, FORTYEIGHT, AND PAGES TWO AND THREE IN REP OF SA ANATOLE A. BOGUSLAV, PHILA, DATED MAY SEVENTEEN, FORTYNINE, BOTH IN FILE ENTITLED, WALTER CARL NEUNSON, WAS., IS - R. NY HAS COPIES OF BOTH REPORTS. HOWEVER, CONTRARY TO PREVIOUS STATEMENTS, NEUNSON NOW CLAIMS HE FIRST MET YAKOVLEV AT HOTEL SAVOY, MOSCOW, IN NINETEEN THIRTY, AT WHICH TIME ACQUAINTANCE WAS VERY CASUAL. AT THAT TIME HE BELIEVES YAKOVLEV WAS POSSIBLY A RUSSIAN ARMY CLERK. NEUNSON WAS THEN EMPLOYED BY ZERNOTRUST, MOSCOW, AND WAS ATTENDING AN INTERPRETER SCHOOL IN MOSCOW AND HIS MEETING WITH YAKOVLEV WAS PURELY SOCIAL. HE NEXT MET YAKOVLEV SOMETIME IN NINETEEN THIRTYSIX AND AGAIN IN NINETEEN THIRTYSEVEN, ALSO IN MOSCOW. NEUNSON CLAIMS THAT DURING THOSE YEARS, YAKOVLEV ADDRESSED AT LEAST TWO AND POSSIBLY MORE ANNUAL CONFERENCES OF TECHNICIANS WHO HAD ATTENDED THE ENGINEERING AND TECHNICAL INSTITUTE IN MOSCOW. ATTENDANCE AND RECALLS ONLY THAT YAKOVLEV-S ADDRESSES DEALT WITH PROBLEMS OF INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION AND WERE ONLY PARTLY POLITICAL. NEUNSON BELIEVES THAT AT THAT TIME YAKOVLEV WAS UNDOUBTEDLY EMPLOYED BY GPU AND CLAIMS HE MET YAKOVLEV ON AT LEAST ONE OCCASION IN THE CORRIDORS OF THE GPU BUILDING IN MOSCOW WHICH NEUNSON WAS THEN VISITING IN EFFORT TO EXPEDITE PASSPORT AND VISA FOR HIS RETURN TO U S. YAKOVLEV NEVER ACTUALLY TOLD HIM HE REPRESENTED GPU BUT NEUNSON BELIEVES THERE WAS NO DOUBT ABOUT SUCH CONNECTION. HAD NO OFFICIAL DEALINGS WITH YAKOVLEV AT GPU AND DOES NOT HAVE ANY KNOWLEDGE AS TO YAKOVLEV-S DUTIES OR SCOPE OF AUTHORITY. MET YAKOVLEV ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS IN NINETEEN THIRTYSIX - THIRTYSEVEN AT SOCIAL GATHERING, AND STATES THAT YAKOVLEV-S FRIENDS GENERALLY ADDRESSED YAKOVLEV UNDER THE NICKNAME KOLYA. THEREAFTER, DID NOT SEE OR HEAR OF YAKOVLEV AGAIN UNTIL THEY MET AT RUSSIAN CONSULATE, NYC, IN JULY, FORTYFOUR. BALANCE OF STORY AS TO MEETINGS WITH YAKOVLEV IN NYC AGREES WITH VERSION PREVIOUSLY REPORTED, EXCEPT THAT HE NOW CLAIMS TO HAVE CALLED ON YAKOVLEV ON ADDITIONAL OCCASIONS AT CONSULATE SOCIALLY DURING NINETEEN FORTYSIX. ON NO OCCASION DID THEY MEET OUTSIDE CONSULATE AND YAKOVLEV RESTRICTED THEIR CONVERSATIONS TO ONLY INNOCUOUS COMMENTS ABOUT OLD TIMES IN RUSSIA. Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

FROM : SAC, New York

SUBJECT: ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV
ESPIONAGE - R~~SECRET~~~~SECRET~~

DATE: June 3, 1950

By teletype dated June 2, 1950, Philadelphia Office advised that HARRY GOLD has positively identified ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV as his superior, "JOHN," to whom GOLD turned over all the information he obtained from Dr. FUCHS.

YAKOVLEV entered the United States at San Pedro, California on February 4, 1941, and was assigned as a Clerk at the Soviet Consulate, New York City, from February 8, 1941, until December 27, 1946, when he departed from the United States, destined for Paris, France. [REDACTED] b1

[REDACTED] One of YAKOVLEV'S close contacts in New York City was LAM-ADOMIAN, a musician, and the specific reasons for the contacts between these two men have never been completely established. [REDACTED]

For the information of the Boston Office, in the report of SA CHARLES E. PELLETIER, made at Boston, November 20, 1947, in the case entitled, "RUSSIAN MUSIC COMPANY; INTERNAL SECURITY - R" was reported that YAKOVLEV was scheduled to appear as a speaker at a "Rally and Concert for the Benefit of Botkin Hospital, Moscow" which was held at the Little Theater, September 12, 1944. [REDACTED] (u)

For the information of the Omaha Office, YAKOVLEV attended the National Farm Institute at the Hotel Ft. Des Moines from February 14 to 16, 1946, which was reported in the report of SA EARL H. WILLIAMS made at Des Moines September 24, 1946 in a case entitled, "CHARLES F. RANSOM; INTERNAL SECURITY - R." No request is being made for any investigation at Des Moines at this time and the above facts are supplied for information purposes only. (u)

Photographs of YAKOVLEV and ADOMIAN are being enclosed herewith and the San Francisco Office is requested to display these photographs to [REDACTED]. The Los Angeles Office is requested to display these photos to [REDACTED] unless any reason exists for not doing so. b7c b7d

Boston is requested to display these photos to HERBERT PHILBRICK, and Albany and Buffalo are requested to display them to any Informants they deem advisable. Baltimore is requested to display these photos to WHITTAKER CHAMBERS to determine if he knows either of these men. The San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Boston Offices are also requested to display these photos to any other Informants they deem advisable. It is requested that these Informants be interviewed for complete information regarding YAKOVLEV and ADOMIAN if they are known to them.

Re New York letter to the Bureau dated June 3, 1950.

The photographs of instant subject, together with the photograph of LAN ADOMIAN, were exhibited to Boston Confidential Informant HERBERT PHILBRICK and [REDACTED]. PHILBRICK could not identify either person. [REDACTED] stated that the photograph of YAKOVLEV "seemed familiar"; [REDACTED] could not identify the latter person but is under the impression that he had on one occasion visited Worcester, Massachusetts, in connection with some affair sponsored by the Massachusetts Council of American Soviet Friendship. It is noted that [REDACTED] was active in the affairs of the latter organization during World War II. [REDACTED] could not identify ADOMEAN in any manner whatsoever.

The files of the Boston Division contain the following information concerning YAKOVLEV:

On March 6, 1950, photographs of YAKOVLEV were furnished Boston by New York City to be exhibited to ROBERT HEINEMAN and KRIS HEINEMAN in an attempt to identify the Soviet Agent [REDACTED]. The photographs were subsequently exhibited and no identifications were effected.

Information was received from the Washington Field Division on: CADR in [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] view of the similarity of the last name in the Russian language to that of the instant subject, it is possible that the person described in this paragraph is related to the instant subject.

The New York Division, by letter captioned "SODAC," dated February 10, 1945, furnished information received from [REDACTED]

Dear Sir:

A search of the name and alias file of the Identification Division has failed to reflect a fingerprint record for the above named fugitives.

The Bureau desires that your office endeavor to develop any additional data that will identify these individuals with a fingerprint record. In this connection as complete a description as possible, together with any aliases that might have been used by the subjects, should be obtained when interviewing any acquaintances of the fugitives. Information concerning any enlistment in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard Services of the United States should, of course, be secured concerning these individuals.

As the securing of sets of fingerprint impressions of these fugitives will be of great assistance in locating them, the Bureau desires that the obtaining of the above information be pursued vigorously by your office.

Very truly yours,

In connection with the investigation of Harry Gold and Emil Julius Klaus Fuchs it has been determined that Anatoli Antonovich Yakovlev was Gold's espionage superior during the time Gold was receiving atomic energy information from Fuchs. Yakovlev was known to Gold solely as "John."

The PR-1 Form maintained at the State Department reveals that Yakovlev was born May 31, 1911, at Borisoglebsk, USSR; that he was a student at the Engineering and Economic Institute, Moscow, Russia, from 1936 to 1941. Yakovlev and his wife, Anastacia Ivanova Yakovlev, entered the United States at San Pedro, California, aboard the SS Ecuador February 4, 1941. He assumed his duties as a clerk at the Soviet Consulate in New York City February 8, 1941.

The Immigration & Naturalization Service records reveal that Yakovlev left the United States by plane for Moscow, Russia, May 26, 1946, returning to New York City July 26, 1946. After his return, Yakovlev became a Vice Consul of the USSR in New York.

On December 27, 1946, Yakovlev reportedly departed from the United States, destined for Paris, France, and the State Department has Details: The title of this case is marked "Changed" inasmuch as HARRY GOLD has positively identified photographs of ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV as being identical with his contact "JOHN".

HARRY GOLD has advised that he has been engaged in industrial espionage since the latter part of 1935 and has been turning such information over to a series of contacts, with the knowledge that such information was going to the Soviet Union.

GOLD has advised that his contact in early 1944 was a man known to him as "SAM" and that SAM arranged for GOLD's first meet with DR. EMIL FUCHS in early 1944. GOLD has advised that following his first meet with FUCHS and before his second meet, SAM advised GOLD that this was the last time they would meet and he advised GOLD to go to a spot on 34th Street in New York City across the street from a bus terminal and in front of CHILDS Restaurant. SAM furnished GOLD with the necessary description of JOHN and the necessary password and arrangements in order that contact could be made between GOLD and JOHN. After meeting JOHN in front of CHILDS, GOLD advised that the two men took a short walk and entered a bar where they ordered a drink and thereafter were joined by SAM.

GOLD advised that each man left the bar alone and independent of the other, and that arrangements were made for another meet with JOHN.

On June 2, 1950, pictures of ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV were exhibited to HARRY GOLD and he stated that YAKOVLEV was identical with his superior known to him as JOHN.

GOLD said all arrangements to meet Subject were made in advance, and that he would meet him prior to his (GOLD's) meetings with FUCHS, and that GOLD would advise Subject if he were to get information from FUCHS at the next meeting, and that plans would be set for his next meeting and alternate meeting places arranged. The meetings with Subject occurred not more than one hour after seeing FUCHS and sometimes as short as 15 minutes.

GOLD advised Subject also had a plan for emergency meetings, which was that he would send GOLD two tickets to some event to be held in New York City, and that the date printed on the tickets would indicate that the meeting was to be held two or three days after that date. GOLD advised that a place and an hour for these meets were always set.

~~SECRET~~

He advised the place was a seafood restaurant across the street from the Broadway stop of the Astoria Elevated Line.

On June 12, 1950, GOLD advised that in the late afternoon of the week between Christmas and New Year's Eve, 1946, he received a telephone call at BROTHMAN's LABORATORY, where he was then employed, and that he recognized the voice of JOHN, who asked if GOLD could see him at 8 or 8:30 that night, and when GOLD hesitated, JOHN stated "At the same place as before". GOLD stated that that evening he went to the EARLE THEATRE, Bronx, New York, where he was to have met JOHN in January or February, 1946. GOLD stated he met JOHN inside the theatre near the men's lounge, and JOHN stopped long enough to say "Third Avenue Bar in an hour".

X GOLD proceeded to the bar and met JOHN outside, and the two then entered another bar. GOLD stated at first JOHN or YAKOVLEV was very affable and apologized for not having been at the EARLE THEATRE for the earlier meeting, but that something had occurred which kept JOHN from keeping appointments for some time. JOHN then inquired if GOLD had any material from FUCHS, and GOLD stated "Certainly not" and surely YAKOVLEV knew of FUCHS' arrest in Great Britain. YAKOVLEV was horrified and GOLD advised him that the story of his arrest had appeared in the "New York Herald Tribune" Sunday Edition in the last week of July, 1946. Subject assured GOLD all efforts would be made to give assistance to FUCHS.

YAKOVLEV then inquired as to what kind of a job GOLD had in New York, and GOLD advised him he was working for ABRAHAM BROTHMAN. YAKOVLEV immediately said, "Look, don't you know that this man is suspect?" GOLD advised him that he did not, and GOLD stated that Subject actually held his head and said, "Oh, my, why did you ever do such a thing?" Subject immediately jumped up from the table and walked out of the restaurant. GOLD followed him, and he, YAKOVLEV, then left GOLD in an extremely agitated mood and made no further arrangements for subsequent meetings with GOLD.

GOLD also advised that in early July, 1949, he received a letter typewritten on a plain piece of paper in a plain envelope with the return address of Hotel St. George, Brooklyn, and postmarked Brooklyn. GOLD stated that the writer stated that he hoped that HARRY was well and looked forward to seeing HARRY again and that the letter was signed "JOHN".

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~ - July 1947.

GOLD stated in late October, 1949, an unknown Russian called at his house at about 8 p.m. on a Saturday night and introduced himself by saying, "Remember JOHN and the doctor in New York?" GOLD advised that this man then proceeded to question him about his testimony given before the Federal Grand Jury. The man also told him that both JOHN and SAM were well, and that JOHN could not come so he was sent on that date.

The Russian then asked GOLD why he had not kept the appointment with JOHN as a result of the letter, and told GOLD he should have gone to the emergency meeting spot two days after the receipt of the letter or maybe the first Monday after the receipt of the letter. The Russian mentioned the place was a seafood restaurant at the Broadway stop on the Astoria Elevated Line.

The Russian then said that it had been impossible for JOHN to keep that appointment with GOLD at the EARLE THEATRE.

Confidential Informant T-19, of known reliability, advised on March 20, 1941 that ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV was born May 31, 1911 at Borisoglebsk, Russia, and from 1936 to 1941, he was a student at the Engineering and Economics Institute, Moscow, Russia. YAKOVLEV entered the U. S. at San Pedro, California, February 4, 1941 as a passenger aboard the SS ECUADOR and furnished as his destination the Soviet Consulate, New York City, where he assumed his duties as a clerk on February 8, 1941. (1)

His wife was listed as ANASTACIA IVANOVA ~~YAKOVLEVA~~, who entered the U. S. on the same date and furnished no occupation as that of a housewife and stated that they had no children. She also indicated from 1936 to 1941, she was a Student at the Engineering and Economics Institute, Moscow, Russia. (13)

On May 28, 1946, U. S. Customs Service advised that YAKOVLEV and one PANASSENKO, acting as special diplomatic couriers for ANDREI GROMYKO, had departed from New York City via AMERICAN OVERSEAS AIRLINES to Berlin en route to Moscow. (14)

On July 26, 1946, the Immigration and Naturalization Service advised of the arrival at LaGuardia Airport, New York City on TWA Plane NC 45436 of ANATOLI YAKOVLEV, at which time latter advised that his position was that of Assistant Consul General, USSR Consulate, New York City. Subject was traveling on Diplomatic Visa No. 844 issued May 21, 1946 at Washington, D. C.

(16) Confidential Informant T-1, of known reliability, advised that on December 27, 1946, Subject, his wife and two children boarded the SS AMERICA destined for Paris, France.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City, reflect that on December 27, 1946, ANATOLE YAKOVLEV departed from the U. S. on the SS AMERICA. His birthplace was given as Russia and his occupation was that of consular official. His last arrival in the U. S. was reported as being July 26, 1946 at New York City. He was accompanied on his departure by ANASTASIA, age 33, sex female, who last arrived in the U. S. 2/3/41 at San Pedro, California. He was also accompanied by a son PAUL, age 5, and a daughter VICTORIA, age 5.

(15) Confidential Informant T-2, of known reliability, advised that ANATOLI YAKOVLEV was observed arriving in Washington, D. C., 5:54 p.m. on November 7, 1946 via AMERICAN AIRLINES Flight 405. T-2 further advised that YAKOVLEV then attended a reception held at the Russian Embassy, Washington, D. C. in honor of Mr. MOLOTOV.

(12) Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, advised that Subject arrived in Des Moines, Iowa at 9 a.m., February 14, 1946, at which time he proceeded to the Hotel Fort Des Moines and attended the 8th Annual NATIONAL FARM INSTITUTE which was in session at that hotel, February 15th-16th, 1946. T-3 advised that Subject did not contact any acquaintances other than those met in the course of events at the Farm Institute.

T-3 advised that Subject registered as ANATOLE YAKOVLEV, 7 East 61st Street, New York City. T-3 advised that Subject departed from Des Moines February 16, 1946 at 11:30 p.m., via Chicago Rock Island Railroad and was scheduled to arrive in New York City on February 18, 1946.

Confidential Informant T-17, of known reliability, advised that ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV was scheduled to appear as a speaker at a "Rally and Concert for the benefit of Botkin Hospital, Moscow" which rally was held at the Little Theatre in Boston, September 12, 1944.

Confidential Informant T-5, of known reliability, advised that subject addressed the Fourth Annual Conference of the AMERICAN SLAV CONGRESS held on November 12, 1945 at the Hotel Roosevelt, New York City.

The AMERICAN SLAV CONGRESS has been declared by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order No. 9835.

Confidential Informant T-6, of known reliability, advised that subject had reservations for the "Tribute to Yugoslavia" held at the Hotel Biltmore, February 7, 1945. This dinner was sponsored by the UNITED COMMITTEE OF SOUTH SLAVIC AMERICANS, the AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR YUGOSLAV RELIEF and the WAR RELIEF FUND OF AMERICANS OF SOUTH SLAVIC DESCENT.

The UNITED COMMITTEE OF SOUTH SLAVIC AMERICANS and the AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR YUGOSLAV RELIEF have been declared by the Attorney General to be organizations coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

The records of the Board of Health for the City of New York reflect under Birth Record 21884 the following information:

Name:	VICTORIA YAKOVLEFF
Born:	June 25th, 1941 Israel Zion Hospital Brooklyn, New York
Father:	ANATOLE, Born Russia Age 30 years Occupation: Clerk, at Russian Consulate
Mother:	ANATACIA DEMIN YAKOVLEFF Born Russia, Age 28 Occupation: Housewife
Residence:	6 East 87th Street New York, New York

The Board of Health Records also contained the following birth record under #21885:

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

NY 100-81002

Name:	PAVEL YAKOVLEFF
Sex:	Male
Born:	June 25, 1941 (Twin)
Doctor:	Dr. J. KALEDOR (Ph.)

The information set forth in the birth record of VICTORIA YAKOVLEFF concerning her parents is also set forth in the birth record of PAVEL YAKOVLEFF.

Confidential Informant T-8, of known reliability, advised that YAKOVLEV had a peculiar method of walking, and that his steps were not as large as those of the ordinary man.

It is to be noted that HARRY GOLD has described JOHN'S walk as being mincing but not effeminate.

T-11, of known reliability, advised that the records of the Motor Vehicle Bureau, State of New York, reflected that 1945 registration on an automobile bearing license 7U 83-33 was issued to A. A. YAKOVLEV, 7 East 61st Street, New York City, Acting Vice Consul of the Soviet Union.

WALTER CARL NEUNSON, of unknown reliability, who had reportedly corresponded with ANATOLE YAKOVLEV in June, 1946, on interview in 1948 and 1949 advised that he was born March 19, 1908, at Philadelphia; that his parents were born in the Ukraine and were Russian nationals. NEUNSON advised that he was taken to the Soviet Union by his parents when 14 years of age; that his mother died in 1926 and his father in 1927 in Russia. He stated that he was employed by the ZERNOTRUST as a translator and Mechanic in Russia from 1928 to 1933. He also claimed to have been arrested by the NKVD in 1933 as a suspect in a sabotage investigation; that he was released shortly after the U. S. Embassy opened in Moscow.

NEUNSON stated that he married ZOYA TIMOFEEOVNA ~~KISLOVA~~ ~~NEUNSON~~ presently in Russia, and that of this marriage, three children were born. NEUNSON also admits marrying EDNA ~~EDMUNDSON~~, Springfield, Missouri, December 28, 1943, without dissolution of his Russian marriage.

NEUNSON re-entered the U. S. in 1940 on an American passport. He admitted that he had contacted subject in 1944, and stated the purpose of these contacts here were to aid his Russian wife and children in coming to the U. S.

NEUNSON also stated that subject attempted to induce him to obtain a U. S. passport and return to Russia as a Russian national after turning over his U. S. passport to the Soviet Consulate. He stated that he was visited by a NKVD Agent in August, 1944, and that he drove him around the Eddy Stone Plant of the BALDWIN LOCOMOTIVE WORKS and questioned him concerning the handling of locomotives being built for Russia.

NEUNSON denied having acted as a Soviet Agent or having engaged in any subversive activities.

NEUNSON was reinterviewed on June 2, 1950, at which time he added further information to that furnished on prior interviews. NEUNSON claimed that he first met subject at the Hotel Savoy, Moscow, Russia, in 1930, at which time this acquaintance was very casual. NEUNSON advised that he believes subject was employed possibly as a Russian Army clerk, and that he, NEUNSON, was then employed by the ZERNOTRUST of Moscow and was attending an interpreters' school in Moscow, and that his meeting with subject was purely social.

NEUNSON advised that he next met subject sometime in 1936 and again in 1937 in Moscow. NEUNSON stated during those years subject addressed at least two or possibly more semi-annual conferences of technicians who attended the Engineering & Technical Institute in Moscow. He recalled that subject's addresses dealt with problems of industrial production and were only partly political.

NEUNSON stated that he believed that at that time subject was employed by the GPU and claims that he met subject on at least one occasion in the corridors of the GPU Building in Moscow, in which NEUNSON was visiting in an effort to expedite his passport and visa for a return to the U. S. NEUNSON advised that subject never actually told him that he represented the GPU.

~~SECRET~~

NEUNSON stated that he had no official dealings with subject or the GPU and does not have any knowledge as to subject's duties or scope of authority.

NEUNSON stated that he met subject on several occasions in 1936 and 1937 at social meetings, and that subject's friends generally addressed him under the nickname KOLYA.

NEUNSON advised that he did not see or hear of subject again until they met at the Russian Consulate, New York City in July, 1944. He stated that he called on subject on several occasions at the Consulate socially during 1946, and subject restricted their conversations to innocuous comments about old times in Russia.

NEUNSON also advised that subject never discussed the scope of his activities with NEUNSON except to complain about being continually overworked and homesick. NEUNSON stated that he never met subject's family, either in the U. S. or Moscow, and has no details as to his personal or official life.

NEUNSON advised, during an interview in 1947, when he saw subject at the Russian Consulate in New York City, he asked him questions concerning his occupation, and that when NEUNSON stated he was employed by the BALDWIN LOCOMOTIVE CO., he asked NEUNSON if he knew IVANOV, the head of a group of Russian inspectors stationed at that company. NEUNSON also stated that he asked general questions concerning the attitude of Americans toward Russia.

NEUNSON also stated that when he left subject, YAKOVLEV told him if anything went wrong at the BALDWIN LOCOMOTIVE CO., NEUNSON was to get in touch with subject and advise him.

NEUNSON stated that following this interview with subject, he was visited by the NKVD Agent referred to above.

NEUNSON advised in his next conversation with subject in November, 1944, subject asked him if anyone had visited him, and that NEUNSON told him that a man had visited him, but he could not recall the name. Subject then informed NEUNSON to forget the name.

Will interview HARRY GOLD concerning his last meeting with Subject in December, 1946. It is noted that Subject departed from the U. S. on December 27, 1946 at 4 p.m., which would mean that the meeting between GOLD and subject must have occurred on December 26, 1946, if GOLD is correct in his placing of this meet. It may be possible for GOLD to definitely set the date of this meeting in relation to the Christmas holiday period of 1946.

Will inquire of GOLD if in the meeting with the unknown Russian in October, 1949 any mention was made of his meet with Subject in December, 1946, and determine if GOLD knows why the unknown Russian apologized for JOHN's failure to appear at the meeting in January, 1946 when GOLD had been contacted by JOHN in December, 1946.

Will display a picture of LAN ADOMIAN to HARRY GOLD and determine if he ever saw or met ADOMIAN.

G.I.R. SECRET 1332

A review of the file reflects that one of the close contacts of YAKOVLEV during 1945 and 1946 was LAW ADOMIAN, a musical composer. ADOMIAN was born JOHN JACOB WEINROTH at Mogilev, Russia, April 29, 1905, and entered the United States at New York City November 1, 1923. ADOMIAN traveled to Spain in February, 1938 to join the Spanish Army and returned in December, 1938. He was naturalized United States District Court, Eastern District of New York, March 26, 1940.

ADOMIAN is a musical composer and teacher and operates on a free-lance basis and is not regularly employed by any organization although he has done some work for Columbia Broadcasting System and the American Broadcasting System.

It is also noted that ADOMIAN's picture has been displayed to HARRY GOLD, and he has stated that he never saw ADOMIAN.

In view of these facts, the Bureau is requested to give permission to the New York Office to interview ADOMIAN and attempt to determine the reasons for his association with YAKOVLEV.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to our teletype of June 9, 1950, in which, among other individuals, the Philadelphia Office was requested to display to HARRY GOLD, a picture of MIKHAIL IVANOVICH MAKSIMOV, in order to determine if this man was identical to the subject of this case.

Since that time a better picture of MAKSIMOV has been secured and is being forwarded to the Philadelphia Office for display to GOLD in connection with this case. It is to be noted that a complete description of MAKSIMOV is on the reverse side of this photo, and it will not be necessary for the Philadelphia Office to return the picture to this office.

Reference is also made to our teletype of June 28, 1950, in the case entitled, "HARRY GOLD; ESPIONAGE - R", in which arrival and departure data on NIKOLAI MIKHAILOVICH AKINFIEV was set forth. In addition to this information, there is also being set forth in this letter a description of AKINFIEV for the benefit of the Philadelphia Office in connection with this case.

Outstanding Features	Square face, large hands, cold level gaze.

There is also being forwarded with this letter to the Philadelphia Office a good photograph of VLADIMIR BORISOVICH BARKOWSKY, for display to GOLD in connection with this case.

It is to be noted that BARKOWSKY was the subject of a pending Espionage - R case in this office, and was presumably associated with Soviet intelligence in England prior to his arrival in the United States in June, 1949. As will be noted by a review of the description of BARKOWSKY, which is on the reverse side of his previously-mentioned photograph, that this individual generally fits the description given by GOLD of UNKNOWN RUSSIAN #1. It will not be necessary for the Philadelphia Office to return this photo to the New York Office.

In addition, the Philadelphia Office is requested to display to GOLD in connection with this case (if this has not already been done) photographs of three individuals hereinafter mentioned, who were former contacts of ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, whose identity is known to the Bureau, the, Washington Field Office, and the Philadelphia Office. Further identifying data on each of the three individuals will be set forth after their names for the benefit of the Philadelphia Office.

Available information on YAKOVLEV reflects that he was an important Soviet Agent while in the United States and was last reported to be attached to the Soviet Embassy in France in July 1948. Since he was apparently a member of the Zubilin network he may have been known to [redacted] and may possibly be identical with the Soviet official "STUDENKO" who JACK SOBIE told [redacted]

In this regard it is noted that [redacted]

It is suggested that the Bureau ascertain if YAKOVLEV is still in Paris and that consideration be given to displaying YAKOVLEV'S picture to [redacted] at the next interview with him.

In view of the fact that JACK SOBIE, JOSEPH KATZ and JOEL BARR, all known Soviet Agents, are reportedly in Paris, it might be significant in indicating that YAKOVLEV if still in Paris might be directing espionage parallels in the United States from Paris [redacted]

PURPOSE

To obtain authority to interview Ian Adomian, associate of Yakovlev, who recently has been identified as Harry Gold's Russian superior in atomic espionage activity.

DETAILS

Ian Adomian, a musical composer, was born John Jacob Weinroth April 29, 1905, at Mogilev, Russia. He entered the United States at New York City on November 1, 1923. He traveled to Spain in February, 1938, to join the Spanish Army, and he returned to the United States in December, 1938. He was naturalized in the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of New York, March 26, 1940.

Adomian is a musical composer and teacher operating on a free lance basis, and is not regularly employed by any organization, although he has done some work for both the Columbia Broadcasting System and the American Broadcasting Company.

Adomian has been under investigation by the Bureau since May, 1948, because he was known to be in close and friendly contact with certain officials of the Soviet Consulate in New York, particularly Anatoli Yakovlev, who now has been identified as an important Soviet agent interested in atomic energy espionage. In addition, investigation has revealed that Adomian has been in contact with other individuals who are the subjects of closed cases, including Shura Lewis, Claudia Winston, and Polya Habicht.

The investigation of Adomian has, for periods of time, utilized both physical and technical surveillances and mail covers. Although close contact with officials of the Soviet Consulate in New York has been observed, no information has been developed to indicate that Adomian has engaged in espionage activity.

By letters dated October 26 and December 29, 1949, the New York Office requested authority to interview Adomian. Memorandum from Mr. Whitson to Mr. Fletcher dated January 13, 1950, reflects that this authority was denied in view of Adomian's connection with the Columbia Broadcasting System in the past.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, FBI

DATE: 9/27/50

FROM : SAC, San Juan

SUBJECT: ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, was.

ESPIONAGE - R

JOEL BARR,

ESPIONAGE - R

By letter from New York to the Bureau dated 7/24/50, captioned ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, was, ESPIONAGE - R, the New York Office advised that stops were being placed by the Washington Field Office with the U. S. Customs Service and Immigration and Naturalization Service at all ports of entry and departure from the United States.

As of 9/22/50 no stops have been received here by the Customs Service or Immigration and Naturalization Service at the Port of San Juan to be placed against this subject.

This information is brought to the attention of the Bureau and the office of origin in view of the fact that air lines operating direct from Europe use San Juan as their United States port of entry, and in addition, several foreign air lines operate directly from Europe to neighboring islands in the Caribbean which connect with Puerto Rico through feeder lines. In addition many foreign vessels from European ports make their United States entry at the port of San Juan, or the free port at St. Thomas, Virgin Islands.

In view of the above it has been felt that the delay in having stops placed at this port could be very detrimental to the successful investigation of this case, and local stops have been placed by this office.

By letter from New York to Washington Field dated 8/9/50, this office was advised that similar stops with Immigration and Naturalization Service, and the United States Customs Service were being placed against subject JOEL BARR.

It was determined on 9/22/50 that a stop had been placed against BARR with the U. S. Customs Service; but up to date no stop had been received by the District Office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Consequently a local stop has now been placed by this office with Immigration and Naturalization Service against BAKR for the reason set forth above.

It is being suggested to the Bureau that a check be made of the procedure by which national stops are being placed with the United States Customs and the Immigration and Naturalization Service, in order that it may be determined whether or not their administrative procedure is faulty and certain of the ports are not receiving notices of stops placed by the Bureau.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: LAN ADOMIAN interviewed and advised he knew YAKOVLEV when YAKOVLEV was Vice Consul of USSR Consulate, NYC. ADOMIAN originally visited Consulate in 1944 or 1945 to obtain a visa to visit Russia in order to observe and engage in cultural activities. Recontacted YAKOVLEV five or six times, possibly more, in an attempt to obtain the visa, which visa was never obtained. ADOMIAN last saw YAKOVLEV prior to his departure from the U.S., and has had no contacts with YAKOVLEV since his departure. Described YAKOVLEV as studious, quiet and a person who said very little concerning his background. ADOMIAN stated he never performed, nor was he requested to perform any activities for YAKOVLEV. ADOMIAN attended party at Russian Embassy, Washington, D. C., given for two opera singers, and YAKOVLEV also attended this party. ADOMIAN born in Russia, and came to the U. S. at the age of 18, and served in the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in Spain. ADOMIAN employed at AMTORG TRADING CORPORATION in 1939-1940, as interpreter-translator. HARRY GOLD described last meeting of YAKOVLEV, at which time YAKOVLEV was interested in having him travel to Paris, France, in early 1947 to engage in espionage activities in France. These plans abandoned when YAKOVLEV determined that GOLD was employed by ABRAHAM BROTHMAN. GOLD also admits receiving $750.00 to $1,000.00 from YAKOVLEV during his acquaintance with him. Federal Grand Jury, SDNY, returned an indictment on 8/17/50 charging YAKOVLEV with conspiracy to violate Section 32, Title 50, U. S. Code. DETAILS:

The title of this case is being changed to reflect the additional alias ANATOL YAKOVLEV for subject, ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, as reflected through investigation.

HARRY GOLD, self-confessed espionage agent, advised on August 7, 1950 that beginning with his initial espionage contact, up to and through YAKOVLEV, he received expense money from all his Soviet superiors. GOLD advised that during the time he was handled by YAKOVLEV he received about $750.00 to $1,000.00 for expense money. He also estimated that all told, he received about $2,000.00 expense money from his Soviet superiors. He advised that he furnished all his contacts with receipts for money received, which receipts he signed with the name COHEN. He also stated that the amounts received from YAKOVLEV and SEMENOV more closely covered his expenses than the sums he received from their predecessor.

HARRY GOLD further advised on August 15, 1950, that at his last meeting with YAKOVLEV, which occurred on December 26, 1946, he received a sum of two or three hundred dollars for his past espionage expenses. He advised that at this time he did not give a receipt. He stated that prior to meeting YAKOVLEV, he had gone to the regular meeting place in the men's lounge of the Earle Theatre, New York City. He advised that he was there approached by an unknown Russian, who had a torn slip of paper, which GOLD had on occasion, between June and September of 1945, given to YAKOVLEV, with the understanding that this paper would be used for identification in the event YAKOVLEV could not make a meet with GOLD. GOLD described this piece of paper as about 2" x 3" in size; stated that it was a bill from ARTHUR H. THOMAS COMPANY, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for a purchase GOLD had made while employed at the Pennsylvania Sugar Company. GOLD advised that the unknown Russian came out of the men's room and walked directly up to him and showed him a portion of this bill, saying in broken English, "You Harry, you have material from the doctor". GOLD answered no, and he was then told by the unknown Russian to go to the Third Avenue Bar to meet YAKOVLEV. GOLD stated that when he met YAKOVLEV, YAKOVLEV told him to prepare for a trip to Paris, France in the early spring of 1947, possibly March or April. GOLD was told to think up plausible excuses for a European trip. He advised that one excuse was for him to write to any number of prominent chemists in France, saying he was vitally interested in the same chemical field as they were. GOLD advised that it was believed that he would get acknowledgement from some chemist by letter, indicating a wish to discuss a problem of mutual interest, and that this would help divert suspicions from GOLD'S real reason for the trip. GOLD stated that he was to meet a man in a subway at a specific stop in Paris, France, and that both GOLD and this unknown man, possibly a Parisian, were to wait until a few subway trains had passed this specific stop. The unknown man was then to approach GOLD and say, "Do you have the records", and GOLD was to response, "Yes, I would like to have them again". GOLD stated that this conversation was to have been carried on in French, and he advised that he is able to carry on simple conversations in French, though he claims he can read technical French, chemical terms and journals. GOLD continued that he was to receive information from the Frenchman, which he would then take to England and turn over to a subsequent contact.

GOLD advised that at about this point, YAKOVLEV asked where he was employed, and when GOLD replied that he was employed by ABRAHAM BROTHMAN, YAKOVLEV became very upset and left, not completing his discussion.

GOLD stated that he was given the instructions for the Paris meeting on a piece of onion skin paper, on which was typed the place, date, time and recognition signal. GOLD advised that he destroyed this paper about one-half an hour before he was interviewed by FBI agents at the BROTHMAN laboratory in 1947. GOLD also advised that a place was designated for him to stay at while in Paris, and that he was to be contacted while there and furnished the details for his contact in England.

GOLD further stated that he believed this European assignment had to do with collecting Atomic information. GOLD was also of the opinion that he would possibly make more than one European trip. GOLD also advised that on at least two occasions, YAKOVLEV told him he would introduce GOLD to a young woman, whose husband was in the United States Army, who would perform the function of doing leg work between YAKOVLEV and GOLD. He recalled that she lived in upper Manhattan, in the neighborhood of Lexington Avenue, near 62nd, 72nd, 58th or 68th Street, and she may have been Russian born, or of Russian descent, although he never met her.

LAN ADOMIAN, 53 West 76th Street, New York City, was interviewed on September 29, 1950, at which time he advised that he knew ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, and that he knew that YAKOVLEV was the Vice Consul of the Soviet Consulate in New York City. He advised that he first met YAKOVLEV sometime in 1944 or 1945, at which time he had gone to the Consulate to attempt to obtain a visa to visit Russia. He stated that he was referred at the Consulate to YAKOVLEV. ADOMIAN advised that he wanted to visit Russia, the land of his birth, in order to observe and partake of the cultural life of Russia. He stated that he recontacted YAKOVLEV on five or six occasions, possibly more or possibly less, to see about obtaining the visa. He stated that he never got the visa. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ADOMIAN advised that he thought the last time he saw YAKOVLEV was in 1947 or 1948, and when ADOMIAN was advised of the departure date of YAKOVLEV, he stated that he must have seen him in 1946. He stated that he saw YAKOVLEV in Washington on one occasion, when he had attended a reception at the Russian Embassy, given in honor of two opera singers. ADOMIAN stated that he travelled to Washington alone and returned to New York City alone by train, and that he had seen YAKOVLEV at the party, but had not travelled with him. He further advised that since the departure of YAKOVLEV, he has had no contact or correspondence with him. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ADOMIAN further advised that he had lunch with YAKOVLEV in restaurants near the Consulate, on about one-half of the occasions on which he saw YAKOVLEV. He stated that he never wrote to YAKOVLEV, or had any correspondence with him. He also stated that he never met YAKOVLEV'S family.

ADOMIAN described YAKOVLEV as a studious, quiet person, and stated that he had played Chess. He also played an instrument in a village orchestra in Russia. ADOMIAN stated that he always spoke in the Russian language when he was with YAKOVLEV, and he also advised that YAKOVLEV was studying French during the time that he knew him, ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ADOMIAN also stated that he was never requested by YAKOVLEV to perform any activities for him. He stated he was never requested to deliver any messages, written or oral, to any other person, by YAKOVLEV, nor did YAKOVLEV ever ask him to effect any introductions for him or any other member of the Consulate staff. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ADOMIAN also advised that he attended a party at the Russian Consulate, New York City, on one occasion, at which time there was being displayed pictures showing the ruination of the war or the rebuilding of ruins caused by the war. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ADOMIAN also stated that he had met PAVEL FEDOSIMOV at the Russian Consulate, New York City, and that most of his contact with FEDOSIMOV was in conjunction with YAKOVLEV. He stated he also had dealings with ZOT TCHEPORNYKH, also a member of the Consulate staff, and that most of his deals with TCHEPORNYKH were in conjunction with YAKOVLEV, and also in conjunction with his attempts to obtain a visa. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ADOMIAN also stated that YAKOVLEV never spoke about his background or about himself, and that he had never mentioned any other countries in which he had served as a member of the diplomatic staff. He also stated he had never seen YAKOVLEV in uniform and never heard him addressed with any military or naval title. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ADOMIAN advised that he came to the United States at the age of eighteen, and at the present time is a naturalized American citizen. He advised that he went to Europe in 1938 to fight with the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in Spain. ADOMIAN declined to answer the question if he was a member of the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. ADOMIAN also stated that he worked at the AMTORG TRADING CORPORATION as an interpreter and a translator. He stated that he worked for a ^{plastics} engineer and that his job was to read patents obtained from the United States Patent Office, and if the engineer decided that these patents would be of interest, ADOMIAN would then make a translation. He stated that this job lasted from two to four months and occurred during late 1939 or early 1940. He advised that he was not referred to AMTORG by anyone, but just went there and applied, basing his application on his bilingual ability. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The following description of ADOMIAN was furnished by himself:

PROSECUTIVE ACTION

The facts in this matter were presented to the Grand Jury for the Southern District of New York.

HARRY GOLD, self-admitted espionage agent, testified before the Grand Jury on August 2, 1950.

RUTH GREENGLASS, wife of DAVID GREENGLASS, self-admitted espionage agent, testified before the Grand Jury on August 3, 1950.

DAVID GREENGLASS, self-admitted espionage agent, testified before the Grand Jury on August 7, 1950.

ETHEL ROSENBERG, wife of JULIUS ROSENBERG, appeared before the Grand Jury on August 7 and 11, 1950.

On August 17, 1940, the Grand Jury, for the Southern District of New York, returned an indictment charging JULIUS ROSENBERG, ETHEL ROSENBERG, and ANATOLI YAKOVLEV as follows:

On or about November 1, 1944, up to and including June 16, 1950, at the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, JULIUS ROSENBERG, ETHEL ROSENBERG, and ANATOLI H. YAKOVLEV, also known as "JOHN", the defendants herein, the United States of America then and there being at war, conspired, combined, confederate and agree with each other and with HARRY GOLD, DAVID GREENGLASS and RUTH GREENGLASS, named as co-conspirators, but not as defendants, and with divers other persons presently to the Grand Jury unknown, to violate Sub-Section (A) of Section 32, Title 50, United States Code, in that they did conspire, combine, confederate and agree with intent and reason to believe that it would be used to the advantage of a foreign nation, to wit, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republic, to communicate, deliver, and transmit to a foreign government, to wit, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republic and representatives and agents thereof, directly or indirectly, documents, writings, sketches, notes, and information relating to the defense of the United States of America.

On August 23, 1950 a bench warrant was issued for ANATOLI H. YAKOVLEV by Federal District Judge T. HOYT DAVIS, for the Southern District of New York.

- P E N D I N G -

ADMINISTRATIVE

The additional alias, ANATOL YAKOVLEV was obtained from Mr. HERMAN GOLDBERG of the AETNA PRINTING COMPANY, 64 Reade Street, New York. Mr. GOLDBERG for many years has done the printing of forms, letterheads, and business cards for the various Russian establishments in New York City, and he gave available samples of such business cards to the New York Office. One of these cards was that of YAKOVLEV with the spelling shown above.

By letter dated July 11, 1950, the New York Office requested permission from the Bureau to interview LAN ADOMIAN, and by letter dated August 10, 1950, authority was granted by the Bureau to conduct an interview of LAN ADOMIAN. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

By teletype dated July 13, 1950, the St. Louis Division advised that it was impossible to identify Colonel PIOTR SERGEEVICH KISSILEV, at Army Records Center, Adjutant General's Office. This teletype further suggested the possibility that KISSILEV was a Russian liaison officer, and was not a member of the Army Air Force. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

By teletype dated July 19, 1950, the Washington Field Office advised that a Colonel P. S. KISELEV was the Commander of the USSR Military Mission in Alaska in 1944. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

By letter dated July 20, 1950, the Albany Office advised that the photograph of YAKOVLEV had been displayed to ALFRED DEAN SLACK, who stated that he did not recognize this picture. The Albany Office advised that there were no other informants in their field division to whom it would be advisable to display the photograph of YAKOVLEV. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

By letter dated July 24, 1950, the Washington Field Office was requested to place a nation-wide stop with the United States Customs Service in order that the nearest office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation would be notified in the event that YAKOVLEV re-entered the United States. By the same letter, the Washington Field Office was also requested to place a similar nation-wide stop with the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

ADMINISTRATIVE (Cont'd.)

By letter dated August 16, 1950, the Washington Field Office advised that a nation-wide stop had been placed with the Collector of Customs against the name of the subject.

On September 13, 1950, LAN ADOMIAN was contacted by agents of the New York Office, at which time he refused to answer any questions until he had an opportunity to consult his attorney. On September 14, 1950, LAN ADOMIAN agreed to be interviewed on September 19, 1950, but on that date he refused to be interviewed again. On September 20, 1950, ADOMIAN'S attorney, Mr. SHEPARD KOLE of the law firm of KOLE & KOLE, 39 Broadway, New York City, contacted the New York Office and agreed to make ADOMIAN available for interview on September 26, 1950. On September 26, 1950, Mr. KOLE contacted the New York Office and asked for a delay of one day in the interview inasmuch as his business was such that he would not be free on that date. ADOMIAN was interviewed on September 27, 1950, in the presence of his attorney, Mr. SHEPARD KOLE and Mr. KOLE'S father and partner. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ADOMIAN also advised that he had visited the Polish Consulate in an attempt to obtain a visa to visit Poland, but that he was turned down in this attempt. ADOMIAN also stated that he did not know or recall the following employees of AMTORG TRADING CORPORATION: ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ARSHAK VARTANIAN
GAIK OVAKIMIAN
SEMEN SEMENOV
JOHANN OHSOL
BELLA SOLASKO

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

With further reference to his employment at AMTORG, ADOMIAN advised that when he first was employed there, the office was located on Fifth Avenue, but that shortly after he started working there the office was moved to 210 Madison Avenue. He also advised that he was paid semi-monthly by check. ADOMIAN also advised that he only worked for one plastics engineer, and that he had only made one trip with him to Cincinnati, Ohio, and he had also made a few trips in the vicinity of New York City, visiting plastics plants. He also advised that he was paid $150.00 a month, plus $3.00 a day expenses while travelling. ADOMIAN advised that he believed that the engineer for whom he worked was named BESSONOV, but that he was not positive of this name, and he was only furnishing it from his best recollection. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ADOMIAN also advised that he knew ERIC BERNAY, and that he had made a recording for BERNAY on one occasion, and on other occasions had consulted with him on musical matters. He advised that he originally met BERNAY in BERNAY'S music store. He stated that to the best of his knowledge, he had known BERNAY since about 1940, and that the friendship with him existed until about 1946, and since that time this friendship has declined because ADOMIAN has other musical business which prevents him from seeing or working for BERNAY. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A photograph of ARTHUR ADAMS was displayed to ADOMIAN, and he recognized this photograph as a man that he had seen at ERIC BERNAY'S studio. He stated that the only contacts he had with ADAMS, were on technical problems. He was unable to recall ADAMS' last name, but knew his first name as ARTHUR. He stated he did not know the exact duties of ADAMS, other than that he was alleged to be a consultant engineer on the construction of a new plant to be built by BERNAY'S firm. He also advised that ADAMS' accent was not an American accent, but that he could not place the particular European locale of his accent. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ADOMIAN also stated that he knew HANS EISLER in the 1930's when he had conducted some of his music. He stated that EISLER was a fine musician, and that he knew very little else about him. He stated that he had never met GERHARDT EISLER. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

EMIL JULIUS KLAUS FUCHS advised Assistant Director HUGH H. CLEGG and Special Agent ROBERT J. LAMPHERE during the interview on May 20, 22, 27, 30, 31, June 1 and 2, 1950, after he had been informed that HARRY GOLD indicated that he was passing the information from FUCHS to another agent by the name of JOHN, that he had thought the matter over and that there were several possibilities. After being asked if he could give any ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ information which might in any way lead to an identification of JOHN, he stated there was a possibility that GOLD was lying. He stated that another possibility was that in connection with the charge made by GOLD that a telephone number had been left for FUCHS to use in making a contact in New York, that he had no recollection of this incident whatsoever, and it would be unusual for him not to remember such an unusual event, but he could not absolutely reject the possibility that something of this sort might have happened. He stated it was a possibility that someone could have been assigned to keep the house of his sister under surveillance at Christmas, 1944, and in February, 1945, in the expectation that he might call there, and when he did call there, they might advise GOLD that he was there, but he had no information or indication to the effect that this was so. FUCHS stated that other possibilities he had in mind would include KONSTANTIN LAFAZONOS, and also his sister's cook, since they were frequently at his sister's home, but stated that he had no reason to suspect them.

Enclosed herewith are the original and four copies of the report of Special Agent JAMES P. LEE, dated at New York, October 19, 1950, in the above-captioned matter.

It is noted that a bench warrant has been issued for YAKOVLEV and he has been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury, for the Southern District of New York.

From a review of the file, it is noted that YAKOVLEV should be carried as a "fugitive". YAKOVLEV has not been carried as a fugitive inasmuch as he is not in the United States, and it is believed that he will not return to the United States. There is no reason to believe YAKOVLEV was ever fingerprinted while in the U.S.

The Bureau is requested to advise if it is desired to carry YAKOVLEV as a fugitive and if it is necessary to submit a fugitive form letter on him.

ReNYlet 10-19-50, enclosing report of SA James P. Lee of even date, and requesting advice as to whether Yakovlev should be carried as a Bureau fugitive.

It is desired that Yakovlev be carried as a Bureau fugitive in accordance with the usual procedure in such cases. You should submit a new first page for the report of SA Lee, showing Yakovlev as a fugitive in the title.

It is desired that the Philadelphia Office reinterview Gold concerning his association with Yakovlev subsequent to the transfer of the last information received from Fuchs in September 1945, in Queens, New York. This interview should be thorough and designed to develop all possible details concerning his various meetings with Yakovlev and the reasons for his cessation of activity with Yakovlev.

In this regard, attention is invited to the reports of SA James P. Lee, New York, dated June 2 and July 10, 1950. The earlier report reflects on page 4 that after receiving the last information from Fuchs, Gold next met Yakovlev in late 1945, at which time Yakovlev informed him that they would have to be very careful. Following this, they met in Jamaica, Long Island, and later in the Earle Theatre, Bronx, New York. These last two meetings occurred during early 1946.

The report of July 10, 1950, reflects on page 3 that Gold advised on June 12, 1950, that during the period between Christmas and New Years Eve, 1946, Yakovlev phoned him at Brothman's laboratory and asked for a meeting that night "at the same place as before." Gold stated he went to the Earle Theatre, Bronx, New York, where he "was to have met" Yakovlev in January or February, 1946. This statement repudiates the earlier statement that he met Yakovlev at the Earle Theatre. Gold continued, saying that at the theatre, Yakovlev (Yakovlev) stopped long enough to say, "Third Avenue Bar in an hour," and that the meeting then took place at the location of this bar.

On the occasion of this meeting around Christmas, 1946, according to Gold, Yakovlev apologized for not having kept the January or February, 1946, meeting at the Earle Theatre, and told Gold that something had occurred which kept him from keeping appointments for some time. It will be recalled that in 1946 Yakovlev made a trip to Moscow as a special courier for Andrei Gromyko, and was gone from May 28 to July 26.

Gold stated further at this time that Yakovlev asked him if he had any material from Fuchs, whereupon he told Yakovlev that Fuchs had been arrested in Great Britain, according to the "New York Herald Tribune" for the last Sunday of July, 1946. This, of course, was news to Yakovlev.

Gold also said that on this occasion Yakovlev asked him where he was working, and that when he told Yakovlev he was working for Abraham Brothman, Yakovlev said Brothman was "suspect" and became agitated and left without making arrangements for further meeting. It is to be noted that Gold became employed by Brothman on February 1, 1946, and furthermore, that Yakovlev phoned him at Brothman's, according to Gold's own story.

Reference report of October 10, 1950, reflects that on August 15, 1950, Gold advised that this meeting in late 1946 actually occurred on December 26, 1946, at which time he was contacted at the Earle Theatre by an unknown Russian, who asked if Gold had material from the Doctor (Fuchs). Gold said that this Russian, upon being advised that Gold had no material from Fuchs, told Gold to meet Yakovlev at the Third Avenue Bar. On this occasion Gold described the meeting with Yakovlev as including discussion of a planned trip on the part of Gold to Paris, France, and also the payment of $200 or $300 to Gold. The day following this meeting, December 27, 1946, Yakovlev departed from the United States. Gold has now identified the unknown Russian mentioned above as Pavel Ivanovich Fedosinov, who appears very likely identical with the KGB resident agent in New York and superior of Yakovlev.

It will be noted that Gold has continually altered his story about the December, 1946, meeting. In addition to the unusual aspects of Gold's story pointed out above, it is most difficult to understand why either Yakovlev or Fedosin would have asked Gold in December, 1945, whether he had material from Fuchs.

It is noted that New York letter dated June 30, 1950, entitled, "Unknown Russian No. 1, New York; Harry Gold - Informant; Espionage - R." sets forth that should be reflected in the next investigative report in this matter. New York should submit a fugitive form letter immediately.

Rebulet October 16, 1950 captioned as above which enclosed a copy of a letter dated September 27, 1950 from the San Juan Office reflecting that the Customs stops on the captioned individuals had not been effectively placed at the port of San Juan.

With regard to JOEL BARR, reference is made to Washington Field Office report dated September 7, 1950 wherein it is reported that Immigration and Naturalization Service had advised that a stop or lookout notice placed with them on a United States citizen would have no effect, as INS maintains no checks against the movement of U.S. citizens.

Mr. DANIEL J. KELLY of INS advised that when a lookout notice at all ports of entry is requested by the FBI, such lookout notice includes San Juan, Puerto Rico. In the particular case of YAKOVLEV, the absence of a stop at San Juan, Puerto Rico, according to KELLY, has in all probability been due to a delay in processing at INS resulting from a lack of personnel and appropriations at that Agency. Mr. KELLY added that the lookout notice on YAKOVLEV finally did go out on October 13, 1950.

With respect to the Customs stops at San Juan, Puerto Rico, it has been learned that the Mechanical Section of the Bureau has the responsibility for mailing the stop notices to the various Collectors of Customs, and that San Juan, Puerto Rico is included in all unlimited stop notice dissemination. Accordingly the Collector of Customs office was not contacted in this regard.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~PURPOSE:

To have Liaison determine whether Bureau letter to CIA dated 10-9-50 enclosed photographs of Anatoli Jacob Iakovlev instead of photographs of subject.

DETAILS:

In this investigation, CIA submitted information concerning Anatoli Jacob Iakovlev indicating that he might be identical with subject. CIA enclosed photographs of Iakovlev.

By letter dated 10-9-50, the photographs of Iakovlev, furnished by CIA, were transmitted to the New York and Philadelphia Offices. Under the same date, a letter transmitting photographs of this subject was directed to CIA.

By letter dated 10-16-50, Philadelphia advised that Bureau letter of 10-9-50 enclosed photos of subject rather than Anatoli Jacob Iakovlev. Accordingly, it is possible that CIA received the photographs of Iakovlev instead of pictures of this subject.

RECOMMENDATION

That Liaison ascertain whether the photographs received by CIA with Bureau letter of 10-9-50 were photographs of subject or Anatoli Jacob Iakovlev. In the event the photos are of Iakovlev, the attached two copies of this subject's picture should be exchanged for them and they should be returned to the Bureau.

LOUIS CARL was born in Kiev, Russia, on June 19, 1886, and entered the United States February 8, 1908, and became a naturalized American citizen September 12, 1913. He was occupied as a boiler-maker and as a gas and heating company operator from 1908 until 1941. Since 1941 CARL, in conjunction with his son NATHAN, has operated the Carl Pipe Bending Company.
CARL has invented a pipe bending machine and has offered to turn the patents on this machine over to the Russian Government.
He was also active in Russian War Relief in Brooklyn, New York.

[REDACTED]

On April 7, 1948, a confidential informant advised that LOUIS CARL is a member of the New York Area Conference Committee of the American Birobidjan Committee.

On January 17, 1946, one LOUIS CARL deposited $25.00 to the account of the Communist Party of New York State (u)

Another informant advised that a LOUIS CARL, born in 1890, belonged to the IWO Lodge No. 71 in June of 1949 and that he had joined in 1930.

On September 15, 1949, one LOUIS CARL donated $25.00

Rebuletts October 9 and November 24, 1950 setting forth information from Central Intelligence Agency and from a highly confidential foreign source relative to the present whereabouts of YAKOVLEV. (S) u

The photograph of ANATOLI JACOB IAKOVLEV was displayed without comment to HARRY GOLD and he stated, "This is YAKOVLEV," indicating that it was a photograph of the subject. When GOLD was advised that this photograph was one of ANATOLI JACOB IAKOVLEV, he evidenced more interest in the picture and after a closer study he advised that this was not a photograph of the subject, but was a photograph of someone who bore a very close physical resemblance to him. GOLD also advised that YAKOVLEV had told him that he had two brothers, one of whom was killed in the war.

It is to be noted that this photograph resembles the still photographs of the subject, and it is further noted that GOLD originally was unable to verify an identification of JOHN from still photographs and effected the identification from motion pictures. (S) u

For your information, the photograph of the latter individual was shown to Harry Gold, who stated that it was a photograph of the subject. After discussing the name of Anatoli Jacob Yakovlev with Gold, however, he studied the photograph further and concluded that it was not a photograph of this subject, but of someone bearing a close resemblance to him. In this regard, when Gold was first shown still photographs of the subject he did not positively identify them as being pictures of his Soviet superior "John." He made this identification positively only after viewing motion pictures of the subject.

Rebulet November 28, 1950.

HARRY GOLD was interviewed December 1, 1950, at which time he advised that he made one trip to Boston shortly before Christmas 1945 to see KLAUS FUCHS, and he made another trip to Boston sometime after February 6, 1946 to see FUCHS. On both these trips he did not succeed in locating FUCHS.

GOLD advised that he saw YAKOVLEV both before and after the first trip to Boston and also before the second trip to Boston. GOLD stated that following his second trip to Boston he had an appointment to see YAKOVLEV at the Earle Theater, Bronx, New York, which appointment was not kept by YAKOVLEV. GOLD stated that he himself was late for this meeting, and was never sure that YAKOVLEV had not been there until YAKOVLEV apologized for not appearing at the meeting when he saw him in December 1946.

With regard to the story of the arrest of KLAUS FUCHS alleged to have appeared in the "New York Herald Tribune" during July 1946, GOLD stated that ABRAHAM BROTHMAN had been attempting to determine who GOLD'S contact had been and that he had asked GOLD on numerous occasions, but that GOLD had never told him FUCHS' name. He thinks that he did tell BROTHMAN that his contact was a British scientist. GOLD advised that one day in late July or early August 1946 BROTHMAN told him that he, BROTHMAN, had read in the "New York Herald Tribune" for the previous Sunday of the arrest of a British scientist in England for revealing atomic secrets. BROTHMAN then asked GOLD the name of his contact and GOLD stated that it was KLAUS FUCHS. BROTHMAN then immediately said that that was the name of the man who had been arrested. GOLD stated that he had never attempted to determine if this story actually appeared in the "New York Herald Tribune" as he was afraid that if he attempted to obtain a back copy of the "New York Herald Tribune," someone might recall his making this request.

With regard to the telephone call to BROTHMAN'S laboratory by JOHN, GOLD stated that YAKOVLEV probably obtained this telephone number from his, GOLD'S, mother. GOLD also stated that he personally had answered the telephone when YAKOVLEV had called the laboratory, and that he had made a practice of answering the telephone by saying, "ABA Laboratory," or just simply using the word hello. GOLD advised that he recalled his mother telling him that various people had called his home in Philadelphia in an attempt to get in.

PURPOSE

To obtain authority to interview Louis and Nathan Carl, b1

DETAILS HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN OTHERWISE.

Louis Carl was the subject of an Internal Security - R investigation during 1945. b1

Louis Carl was born June 19, 1886, at Kiev, Russia, and entered the United States at New York City on September 8, 1908, as Leib Karlstein. He was naturalized in New York 9-12-13. He was employed as a boilermaker at various companies from 1908 to 1913, and at the Brooklyn Navy Yard from 1913 to 1921 and 1934 to 1941. During 1921-1934, he organized and was the officer of gas and heating companies. Louis Carl's son, Nathan Carl, was born August 2, 1914, at Bronx, New York. ed

Since 1941, Louis and Nathan Carl jointly owned and operated the Carl Pipe Bending Company. Louis Carl invented a pipe bending machine under which patent the company operated. In 1945, it was engaged in war work as a subcontractor. The investigation indicated that Louis Carl was active in Russian War Relief.

Information identifiable with the Carls, appearing in Bureau files other than the main file, reflects that on May 16, 1944, Nathan Carl was interviewed in connection with the matter entitled "Unknown Subjects" b7c

According to the report of SA Huethe P. Dowling, New York, dated May 23, 1944. This interview reflected that the Carl Pipe Bending Company had performed work on contracts held by the Macklin Fabricated Metals, Inc., and the Gardner Pattern and Model Works, Inc., but that it had only bent the pipe, the material having been furnished by the contractors.

Subject was the superior of Harry Gold during the time that Gold received the atomic information from Klaus Fuchs. By letter dated November 28, 1950, in captioned matter, the New York office requested authority to interview Louis and Nathan Carl.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the New York office be granted authority to interview the Carls for all information in their possession concerning subject Yakovlev, and [redacted] (C)

GOLD also stated he personally answered YAKOVLEV's telephone call to the BROTHMAN Laboratory in December, 1946, and did not identify the Laboratory upon answering the phone, and thus YAKOVLEV did not know it was BROTHMAN's Laboratory. GOLD advised he had no contact with YAKOVLEV from the time prior to his second Boston trip until December, 1946. Federal Grand Jury, SDNY, returned superseding indictment 10/10/50, charging subject, JULIUS ROSENBERG, ETHEL ROSENBERG, DAVID GREENGLASS, and MORTON SOBELL with conspiracy to commit espionage, and named HARRY GOLD and RUTH GREENGLASS as co-conspirators. Indictment contained same overt acts charged in indictment of 8/17/50. Bench warrant issued 10/16/50 by Federal District Judge WILLIAM BONDY, SDNY. Fugitive form letter enclosed.

GOLD stated he thought he had told BROTHMAN that his contact was a British scientist.

GOLD stated that one day in late July or early August, 1946, BROTHMAN told him that he, BROTHMAN, had read in the "New York Herald Tribune" for the previous Sunday a story of the arrest of a British scientist in England on charges of revealing atomic secrets. BROTHMAN then asked GOLD the name of his contact and GOLD stated that it was KLAUS FUCHS. BROTHMAN immediately stated that that was the name of the man who had been arrested.

GOLD advised he had never attempted to determine if this story actually appeared in the "New York Herald Tribune", as he was afraid that if he attempted to obtain a back copy of that paper, someone might recall his making this request.

GOLD advised that with regard to the telephone call made to BROTHMAN's Laboratory to him by YAKOVLEV, that he feels YAKOVLEV probably obtained this telephone number from GOLD's mother. GOLD also advised that he personally answered the telephone when YAKOVLEV called, and that he made a practice of answering the telephone by saying "AEA Laboratory" or just simply saying "hello". GOLD stated that he recalled his mother telling him that various people called his home in Philadelphia in an attempt to get in touch with him, and that she had furnished the telephone number to these people.

* GOLD also stated that when YAKOVLEV and FEDOSIMOV asked him in December, 1946, if he had any information from the Doctor, it was the first time that he had had any contact with his Russian superiors since prior to his second trip to Boston.

On October 10, 1950, the Federal Grand Jury, Southern District of New York, handed up to Judge WILLIAM BONDY, United States District Judge, a superseding indictment charging JULIUS ROSENBERG, ETHEL ROSENBERG, ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV, also known as "JOHN", DAVID GREENGLASS, and MORTON SOBELL, with conspiracy to commit espionage. This indictment also named HARRY GOLD and RUTH GREENGLASS as co-conspirators but not defendants. This indictment contained the same overt acts as was contained in the indictment filed against JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG and ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV on August 17, 1950.

On October 16, 1950, a bench warrant was issued by District Judge WILLIAM BONDY for ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV.

7 This photograph of ANATOLI JACOB ~~YAKOVLEV~~ was displayed without comment to HARRY GOLD, and he stated, "This is YAKOVLEV". indicating that it was a photograph of the subject. When GOLD was advised that this photograph was one of ANATOLI JACOB IAKOVLEV, he evidenced more interest in the picture, and, after a closer study, he advised that this was not a photograph of the subject, but was a photograph of someone who bore a very close physical resemblance to him. GOLD also stated that YAKOVLEV had told him that he had two brothers, one of whom was killed in the war.

president, age 57; HAROLD KAPLAN, Vice-President, age 30 and CHARLES MADDEN, secretary-treasurer, age 45.

HARRY KAPLAN, according to the report, has been self-employed in this business since 1910 and as of September, 1931, was a partner in a North Avenue Bath House. He also has considerable holdings in residential real estate within the city of Chicago.

The records of Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., Chicago, reflect that HARRY KAPLAN was born in the United States in 1893, is married, and was employed in the contracting business until 1913 when he started with the present company. On November 11, 1929, the business was sold to the corporation in which HARRY KAPLAN is the principal stockholder. He has been president and general manager of the corporation since its inception and is also Vice-President of North Avenue Baths, Inc., an Illinois corporation operating a Russian and Turkish bath house at 2039 West North Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. He is also president of H. Kaplan-Johnson, Inc., contractors, at Los Angeles, California.

The treasurer of the corporation is shown as HYMAN KAPLAN, who was born in Chicago in 1914, is married and a son of the president, HARRY KAPLAN. He was elected treasurer in 1937 and until January 1, 1946, was also vice-president of Norman Credit Jewelers, Inc., Chicago, retailers of jewelry.

CHARLES E. MADDEN, native-born in 1918, a graduate of the University of Chicago, who has been with the corporation since September, 1947, as a construction engineer, is secretary of the corporation.

The report indicates that MARVIN STEINHOLTZ is Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer of the corporation. This individual is said to have been native-born in 1918, single and an employee of the company since 1945 as a superintendent of construction.

The indices of the Chicago Office contain no record identifiable with HARRY, HAROLD or HYMAN KAPLAN or CHARLES MADDEN.
